& Ors. .. Respondents.

Mr. Sonpal, AGP for respondents nos. 1 to 4.

CORAM : S.U. KAMDAR, J.
DATE : 1st December, 2005.

P.C.:

. In view of my order dated 1.12.2005 in writ Petition No. 7471 of 2004 I have held that the Government has no power of second revision under S. 154 of the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act, the impugned order passed by the State Government in exercise of the second reversionary power is bad in law and, therefore, the impugned order dated 10.8.2005 is required to be quashed and set aside. However, in the facts and circumstances of the present case, the respondent no. 5 will be at liberty to challenge the order passed by the first revisional authority if so advised by filing appropriate writ petition on merits. Petition dismissed accordingly. No order as to costs.
